National National Clean Up Day

If you're one of those people who always looks forward to spring because of your love for spring cleaning, then May 10th could just be your favorite day! National Clean Up Your Room Day is May 10th! While it may say "clean up your room," the idea behind National Clean Up Your Room Day is to pick up, straighten up, and clean up whatever your space may be.

Get some fresh air, organize, declutter, and rearrange. If you have little fix-it projects, see about getting them done. And if you have things you no longer want or need, see if they can be donated; - it may be exactly what someone else is looking for! And sometimes, just tidying up a bit, and maybe a little rearranging, can make a space feel springtime fresh!

Today in History

DID YOU KNOW? Why Tennis Balls are Yellow

Color television became popular in the 1970s, and many people upgraded their TV sets. To make tennis more visible on TV, neon-yellow balls were introduced in 1972. The International Tennis Federation found the bright shade of yellow made it easier for viewers to follow. Wimbledon, the oldest tennis tournament, didn't switch to yellow for another 14 years, despite being broadcast in color since 1967.
