World Four Leaf Clover Day

Today just might be your lucky day. It is World Four Leaf Clover Day. Your sole objective is to find a four-leaf clover. According to Irish folklore, four-leaf clovers will bring you good luck, and we all could use a little of that. Your search is a daunting one. It is estimated that only 1 in 10,000 clover leaves are four-leaved. However, it's the beginning of August, and life slows down at this time of the year. All it takes is for each of us to find our four-leaf clover.

Sorry, there is no sharing. You must find one for yourself. Otherwise, the magic of the four-leaf clover will not occur. So, why not look for one outdoors, on clothing, or in a drawing or picture?
