Thankful for My Dog Day

It's Thankful for My Dog Day. Let's celebrate man's best friend today by letting them know how thankful you are for them. Thankful for My Dog Day was created in 2020 by M.Y.O.S. Canine Muscle Formula and is a day dedicated to appreciating man's best friend for cheering us up, making us laugh, and offering companionship, love, undeniable loyalty, and joy.

Did you know that dogs are in the class of animals known as Caniformia, which is Latin for "dog-like?" Others in this family include raccoons, bears, foxes, and skunks. Some believe dogs evolved from wolves, and others believe they evolved alongside wolves. Either way, all dogs—large and small, fluffy and scruffy, yappy and quiet—regardless of breed deserve to be loved, especially today.

Today in History

In 2018, golfer Phil Mickelson won $9 million in a one-on-one golf competition with Tiger Woods. He made a 4-foot putt on the 22nd hole in Las Vegas. Mickelson has won 45 events on the PGA Tour, including six major championships, three Masters titles, and one Open Championship.

DID YOU KNOW?

Greek Toe

"Greek toe" refers to a foot condition where the second toe is longer than the big toe. In ancient Greece, individuals with this trait were thought to possess leadership qualities. Only 15-20% of the population have the Greek toe. Nowadays, we know this condition as Morton's toe.

Research indicates that Morton's toe might provide an advantage in athletics, potentially explaining the Greeks' admiration for those with longer second toes.
