National Twin Day

Have you ever wished there was another one of you to help you get more done or be in two places at once? If you're one of the few people who has a twin, your wish came true, whether it was a wish of yours or not! National Twin Day was inspired by a pair of twins named Moses and Aaron Wilcox. In 1819, they donated six acres of land to a town called Millville, and in exchange, the town changed its name to Twinsburg, which is the epicenter of National Twin Day.

If you're one half of a twin, celebrate your unique sibling bond today. If not, think about what it would be like to have a twin yourself.
