Wave All Your Fingers At Your Neighbor Day

Although there's different types of ways to greet people (the nod, peace sign and one finger salute come to mind), nothing says hello like waving with all of your fingers, which is exactly what Wave All Your Fingers At Your Neighbor Day is all about. Observed every February 7th, Wave All Your Fingers At Your Neighbor Day helps to encourage people to show love to those around them. From the standard side-to-side wave, arm wave and palm wave to the finger wiggle wave, flirtatious wave and Miss America wave, however you like to wave, celebrate today by using your entire hand to give your neighbors a friendly five-finger wave and watch the smiles add up!

DID YOU KNOW? VP with a Hit Pop

Charles G. Dawes, a former U.S. Vice President, and Nobel Peace Prize laureate, had an unexpected talent: songwriting. His 1911 instrumental piece, "Melody in A Major," later became the iconic song "It's All in the Game." Covered by artists like Tommy Edwards, Nat King Cole, Elton John, and Van Morrison, this song remains a popular standard. Dawes is the only U.S. President or Vice President to have a No. 1 hit song.
