Alexander Graham Bell Day

Ring, ring! It's Alexander Graham Bell day! Celebrated every year on March 7th, It marks the day in 1876 when Bell patented the telephone, forever changing how we communicate. This groundbreaking invention revolutionized communication, connecting people across distances and transforming how we interact with the world.

Bell's ingenuity extended beyond the telephone. He was a true inventor, always curious and exploring new ideas. He dreamed of flying machines and even experimented with underwater boats! So on March 7th, take a moment to appreciate the impact of Bell's inventions. Maybe even make a silly phone call to a friend just for fun! It's a day to remember the power of ideas and how they can shape the world around us.

Today in History

In 1972, "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" was released by Roberta Flack, winning Billboard Song of the Year. She was the 1st artist to win the Grammy for Record of the Year in two consecutive years, 1973 and 1974. In 1999, Flack received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

DID YOU KNOW?

Advertisement

If a 1960s show is rerun today, the content may be edited by nine minutes to make room for the extra advertisements. In the 1960s, TV advertisements were typically 60 seconds long, which then shrank to 30 seconds in the 1970s, with 15-second commercials becoming more prevalent in the late 1980s and continuing to be a common length in the present day; essentially, ads have generally become shorter over time.

How To Play:

Each 9x9 box is comprised of 9 smaller 3x3 boxes. Each of these smaller boxes must be filled in with numbers from 1-9. Each row and column of the larger 9x9 box should not have any numbers repeated.

	9	3	8		4		7	5
			6			1	4
	7	1		9			8
3	4	6			8			1
						5	9
2			1	7	3
1		7	5			8
					1	6		2
	8	2		4				7

9	3					6		7
	6		5	7			1
					3	8
			3		2		9
	2			9	5			6
5		4					2	1
			1	5	8
1							7	9
2	5	3

Helpful Tip:

If you get stuck, try asking yourself "Where can I place number X in this row or column?" Scan to see if the number is already in that row, column, or box.
