National Won't You Be My Neighbor Day

If you're reading this right now, it's more likely than not that you've at least heard of Fred Rogers, better known to kids as Mister Rogers. For the very few who might be unaware, Fred hosted an extremely popular preschool TV series on PBS in the 70s and 80s called Mister Rogers' Neighborhood where he would teach lessons about kindness, sing songs, and play in the world of make-believe with his puppet friends. One of his most famous lines was when he would ask the viewer, "Won't you be my neighbor?"

With today being "Won't You be My Neighbor Day," we take time out to honor, celebrate, and appreciate the man who taught the world that everyone's feelings matter and how important it is to care for one another.
