Friendship Coloring Page

A friend is one who overlooks your broken fence and admires the flowers in your garden.

There are friends, there is family, and then there are friends that become family.
-Unknown

Try to be a rainbow in someone's cloud. Maya Angelou

A good friend is like a four-leaf clover:
hard to find and lucky to have. Irish Proverb

Good friends are like stars. You don't always see them, but you know they're always there. Unknown

The most beautiful discovery true friends make is that they can grow separately without growing apart. Elisabeth Foley

Yellow Rose of Friendship

Friendship Week came about as a way to honor existing friendship and focus on building new ones. Create a list on each side of the yellow rose for ways that you can make friends and ruin friendships!

1. Though the New York natives have been friends for years, they just recently starred in their first movie together, Second Act.
2. These two met in 1976 while working together at a Baltimore TV station. One was a news anchor and the other a production assistant.
3. A long held Hollywood bromance has existed between these two men. They've never collaborated on a film together. Although it would be an awesome action packed adventure!
4. These two will probably never make sweet music together, but they originally connected while working a community garden project. The "little jewish lady" and the "big rapper". You never know what you'll have in common with someone.
5. This funny pair's friendship predates their roles in Charlie's Angels. "We're more than best friends, she's my sister" "We've had the majority of our lives spent side by side, really going through what real life is, which is an everyday high and low, and we just have each other's backs."
6. This former presidential candidate could always count on one vote from her best friend. "I'm just an actress, and she is the real deal"
