

FUN WITH MAD LIBS!

“Give us a Spring Break!”

_____ was thrilled. Today was April 1st, the first day of spring break, and she (Girl's name)

and her family were leaving for _____. The resort they were staying in was all (country)

inclusive with free _____ noun - plural and all the _____ you would want.
(noun-plural) (noun-plural)

She couldn't wait to _____ in the ocean and ride _____ around the _____.
(verb) (noun-plural) (noun)

She was hoping that she'll be able to see a _____ while she was there.
(noun)

Dad took all of the luggage to the car. Mom reminded him not to forget her

_____. When the car was packed, Dad came in with a _____ look adjective (noun) (adjective)

on his face. "I've got some _____ news," he said. "Our flight has adjective been (adjective)

canceled." I just spoke with the resort manager and he said they had a big _____ in (noun)

the area and our hotel is _____. _____! This can't be!
(adjective-past tense) (exclamation)

_____ _____ _____ to the car to get her things. Tears (adverb) (verb-past tense) (same girl's name)

were _____ down her cheeks; she couldn't even _____. This was (verb+ing) (verb)

going to be the most _____ spring break ever! But when Mom and Dad both (adjective)

got in the car, they asked her to join them. "Come on," Mom said. " _____ in (verb)

the back seat." "Where are we going?" Mom and dad _____ at each other.
(verb - past tense)

"To the airport," Dad said. "But -" "Buckle your _____," Mom said. "But, I thought our flight was canceled!" Mom and dad started to _____ and after (verb)
(noun)

what seemed like _____ hours, they exclaimed, "April Fools!!"
(number)