Shoo Crows Shoo

Today we _____ for fall by _____ our pumpkin (verb-ed) (verb-ing)
patch for crows. Everyone knows the _____ way to shoo (adjective)
crows away is with a _____ scarecrow! So, we grabbed an (adjective)
old pair of _____, found an old hat and overalls, and (noun)
_____ out into the _____ fall air. After (adverb) (verb) (adjective)
_____ by the barn to grab a post and some straw, we (verb-ing)
began to _____ our scarecrow. Once we _____ it full (verb) (verb-ed)
of straw and _____ it up, we used a _____ to draw to (verb) (noun)
_____ face! So long, crows!
