Wear Blue Day

It's June 18th, and it's time to wear your blue! Today is Wear Blue Day, and any color blue will do. From periwinkle to navy to azure to sky blue, there are many options to show your support for this colorful celebration. Blue is considered one of the most beautiful colors, which may be why it is the favorite color of the majority of people in the world. The Crayola crayon company asked people in 1993 to name the color they liked the best, and blue was the clear winner.

The same question was asked by Crayola in the year 2000, and once again, blue took first place. It's no wonder there is a National Blue Day! Do you have a favorite hue of blue?

Today in History

In 1967, Jimi Hendrix, Janis Joplin, The Who, and Otis Redding made their 1st major US appearances at the final day of the Monterey International Pop Festival. The 3-day event symbolized the theme of California as a focal point for the counterculture, with the debut of hippies.

DID YOU KNOW?

Versailles: A Grandeur

The Palace of Versailles, built for Louis XIV in 1623, is renowned for its opulent rooms and extravagant gardens, attracting over three million visitors annually. Key highlights include the Hall of Mirrors and the lush grounds filled with art and sculptures. It symbolizes wealth and excess, contributing to the discontent that led to the French Revolution. The construction cost, adjusted for inflation, is estimated between $200 and $300 billion with 35,000 workers involved.
