Esther Day

Esther Day is a relatively new phenomenon; Esther Day is celebrated each year on Esther Grace Earl's birthday. Esther was a fan of an online blog that passed away in August of 2010, shortly after her 16th birthday. The creators of the blog became friends with Esther, including award-winning author John Green, and wanted to celebrate her birthday with their fans. The group of friends asked her how she wanted the world to celebrate her birthday after she was gone.

She replied, "A day to celebrate love for family and friends by telling those who we are close to that we love them, even if it is sometimes difficult to say out loud." It is a day that celebrates non-romantic love and reminds people to vocalize their love for their friends and family.

DID YOU KNOW? A Voice Like No Other

Mel Blanc, known for characters like Bugs Bunny, was eager to audition for Disney early in his career. He was cast as Gideon the cat in Pinocchio, earning $50 a day for 16 days of recording. Unfortunately, his dialogue was mostly cut, leaving just one hiccup in the film. Alongside Blanc, Thurl Ravenscroft voiced Monstro the whale and later became the voice of Tony the Tiger.
