National Mayflower Day

On September 16th, 1620, the Mayflower ship set sail from Plymouth, England, with 102 men, women, and children seeking fortune or religious freedom. The pilgrims intended to voyage to Virginia, but instead, the winds blew them off course, and after 66 days at sea, they ended up settling in modern-day Cape Cod.

You can celebrate this day by reading The Mayflower and Her Passengers by Caleb H. Johnson and The Mayflower: A Story of Courage, Community and War by Nathaniel Philbrick. There are also documentaries available on the Mayflower, and plenty to discuss about this transformative event.

Today in History

In 1996, the courtroom reality show “Judge Judy,” with Judge Judith Sheindlin, premiered in the US. Her show ran for 5 years and made her a pop culture icon. After 25 seasons of “Judge Judy,” she launched a new streaming series, called “Judy Justice,” on Amazon Freevee in 2021.

DID YOU KNOW?

Sounds of Yesteryear

Remember the symphony of a dial-up modem screeching to life, followed by the distinctive "whirr-clunk" of a fax machine transmitting? Or perhaps the satisfying ka-chunk of a rotary phone dialing a number? These auditory relics, alongside the high-pitched whir of a cassette tape rewinding and the rhythmic clack-thwack of a typewriter, have largely faded into obsolescence. They're ghostly echoes of a time when technology sounded, quite literally, different.

After the success of Disneyland's opening in Anaheim, California, other states wanted a park, too. The Florida destination we all know today, St. Louis, was a serious contender for Disney World.
