Babbling Day

What's all the chatter about? Well, today is Babbling Day. Whether you know someone who is a babbler or you babble yourself, today is a day where everyone can ramble on until their heart's content. It is highly encouraged to go out and tell as many people as you can about this day. After all, Babbling Day is certainly not a day for one to be silent. If you don't want to celebrate the day by babbling yourself, you can always lend your ear to some of the best babblers in the world—babies and politicians.

And if you want to learn a new word, a blatherskite is a person who babbles. On second thought, do yourself a favor and go sit by a babbling brook instead.
