

Real or Fake?

Did Shakespeare write it, or did we make it up?

"If music be the food of love, play on."	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"One looks before one leaps."	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"O, reason not the need! Our basest beggars are in the poorest thing superfluous."	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"Expectation is the root of all heartache."	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"But for those who love, time is eternal."	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"First, heaven be the record to my speech!"	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"I will wear my heart upon my sleeve."	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"Look around this manor, and all you will see are ill-mannered people."	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"What's here, the portrait of a blinking idiot?"	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare
"When I'm sick of this life I see, it has to be my family who lift me."	Fake-Speare or Shakespeare

Answers

1. Shakespeare - Twelfth Night
2. Fake
3. Shakespeare - Act 2, Scene 4 from King Lear
4. Fake
5. Fake
6. Shakespeare - Richard II
7. Shakespeare - Othello
8. Fake
9. Shakespeare - The Merchant of Venice
10. Fake