Still Need To Do Day

The year is almost over... so why does it feel like you have a million things you need to do before then? If you have a list of things you still need to do, take advantage of Still Need To Do Day. In a day and age when distractions are everywhere, this is a day that encourages accountability, motivates us to take action, and reminds us to remain focused.

It's a universal holiday that transcends cultural and national boundaries, as it is one that everyone, everywhere, can take part in (and probably needs to). Use the next 24 hours to get whatever things are left on your to-do list. Once you complete them, you'll be glad you made the most of this day!

Today in History

In 1932, "Flying Down to Rio" premiered in New York City. It was the 1st movie Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers starred in together. The duo would team up in a series of 10 Hollywood musical films. Rogers had a career that spanned nearly five decades, acting well into the 1960s.

DID YOU KNOW? A Lunacy of Leadership

Did you know President John F. Kennedy's dramatic 1961 commitment to land a man on the Moon wasn't just about space science? Facing a confident Soviet Union, Kennedy needed to restore American confidence. In a special message to Congress, he declared the audacious goal—not merely to match the Soviets but to surpass them—as a way to focus and mobilize the nation's lagging space program before the decade's end.

1				9				3

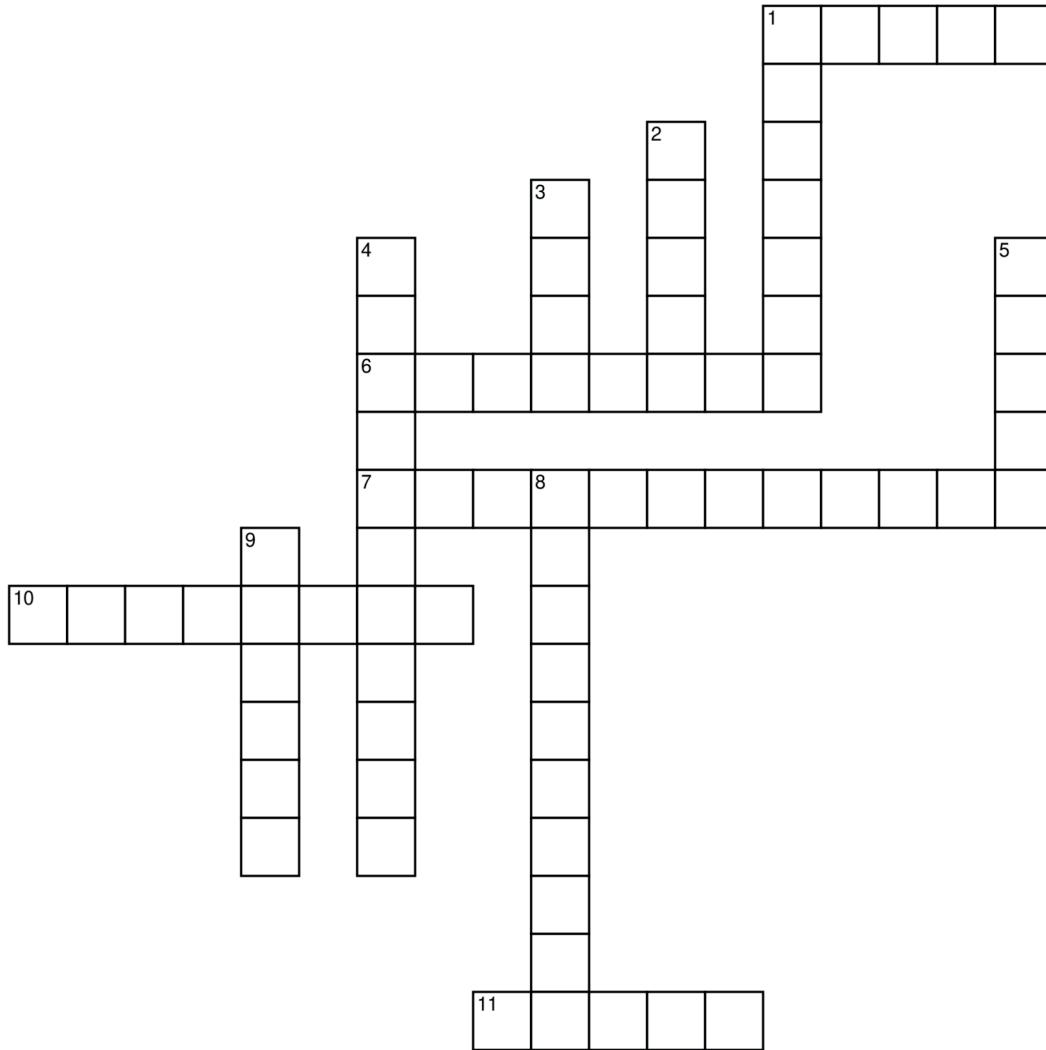

8			5	2
6	7	5			3		2	4
2	1			6		9	5	8
1		8	2	3	5			7
7	6	2			9		8	3
			7	8	2			1
	5			8		6	3
9	2	6				8		5
		1	9	5	6		4	2

Helpful Tip:

If you get stuck, try asking yourself “Where can I place number X in this row or column?” Scan to see if the number is already in that row, column, or box.

Trivia Answer: D

Montecore was a 6-year-old white tiger. Roy was able to make an almost full recovery (despite the doctors' negative prognosis), but unfortunately, the show was canceled.
