Make Cut Out Snowflakes Day

Ladies and gentlemen, start your crafting! Today is Make Cut-Out Snowflakes Day, just like you did when you were a kid. This crafty day isn't just for children, though.

Making snowflakes is a fun thing to do for people of all ages. All you need is some paper, scissors, and a little imagination. Finding a template you can use online will make the project much easier to do, but since every snowflake is different, taking your time to make one freehand would be quite right. Don't be shy.

No two snowflakes are ever alike, so you are free to make yours however you want. Bring the winter wonderland indoors and cut out snowflakes today!

DID YOU KNOW?

Harpoon-y Money

Did you know New Bedford, MA, was once the richest city in the world per capita? Dubbed "The City That Lit The World" during the 19th-century whaling boom, its immense wealth came from whale oil used to light lamps globally. This economic prosperity also made it a vital stop on the Underground Railroad, providing a haven and home for African-American abolitionists like Frederick Douglass.
