International Holocaust Remembrance Day

Each year on January 27th, the world remembers one of the most horrific events in modern history. From 1941 to 1945, Nazi Germany and its collaborators committed the systematic murder of over six million Jews, along with hundreds of thousands of others who were deemed to be enemies of the Nazi regime. Edmund Burke famously said, "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." Many events are held throughout the world to commemorate this solemn day, including testimonies by Holocaust survivors, special music, and memorial prayers. There are also photographic exhibits, panel discussions, film screenings, and book signings. Remembrance of the Holocaust teaches us that humanity can survive unimaginable horrors.

Today in History

In 1956, "Heartbreak Hotel" by Elvis Presley was released on his new record label, RCA Victor. The single topped the Billboard 100 for 7 weeks, was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame in 1995, and Rolling Stone magazine named it one of the "500 Greatest Songs of All Time" in 2004.

DID YOU KNOW?

An Iconic Commercial

Fifty years ago, the iconic "Wednesday is Prince Spaghetti Day" commercial debuted, featuring a young Anthony Martignetti running through Boston's North End. The ad showcased Italian family dinners and transformed Martignetti into a local legend. It ran for 13 years, helping to popularize Italian cuisine in America. Though times have changed, the commercial remains a nostalgic reminder of the cultural landscape and its impact on the North End community.

Conversation Starters

Use the following conversation prompts to start a discussion with friends or family! You may also use the provided lines to answer the questions on your own if you prefer.

If you could have any non-human ability, what ability would you want to have? Flying, Telepathy? Something else?

What would be the benefits of this ability, and what would you most like to use it for? Would there be any negative side effects?

How would your life be different with this ability? Would you want anyone else to know that you have it?
