Married to a Scorpio Day

Are you or were you ever married to a Scorpio? If so, then you know firsthand just how difficult that is! Born between October 23 and November 22, Scorpios, although loyal, have a reputation for being manipulative, impulsive, and moody. As such, they can make being married to them a real pain. This means that for one to stay married to them, you have to be special, like a Capricorn, Cancer, or Pisces.

While Capricorns are loyal and Cancers are patient, it's Pisces in particular that make the best mates for Scorpios because they are the dreamers, healers, and nurturers (all qualities you'll need to live in harmony with a Scorpio). If you are or were married to a Scorpio, share your thoughts, feelings, and experiences on the subject with a friend today!

DID YOU KNOW?

Real Men Use Duct Tape, but a Woman Invented It

During World War II, ordnance plant worker Vesta Stoudt realized that fragile paper seals on ammunition boxes often tore, leaving soldiers struggling to open them under fire. She designed a strong, waterproof fabric tape as a reliable solution. Impressed by her idea, President Franklin D. Roosevelt forwarded it to the War Production Board, giving birth to what we now know as duct tape.
